

Illinois Science Teaching Association

Fall 2023 Newsletter

Who we are!

The vision of the Illinois Science Teaching Association (ISTA) is to establish ISTA as a resource for science education so that all students are scientifically and technologically literate, responsible and productive citizens.

Science in the News

This District Sees Big Benefits in Computer Science for All

11 Leaders weigh in on their top time management techniques

Curry may have landed in Southeast Asia 2000 years ago

This fish delivers a nasty sting but could it save lives?

A famed architect designed a futuristic fully recyclable concrete bunker to house people who have been displaced

Is this extreme weather the new normal? There's no such thing some scientists say

Why can't Canada just put the fires out? Here are 5 answers to key questions

Timelapse captures sandstorm engulfing Phoenix

Drones are showing us sharks like never before

Cool down with the slick science of sweat

Join us on Friday, September 29th

Connecting Science

Illinois Science Teaching Association
2023 State Conference

Forward

9 am - 4 pm

At Illinois Institute of Technology - Rice Campus in Wheaton

- Earn professional development hours
- Network with peers
- Build new friendships
- Gain new knowledge and skills for your students

To register and learn more visit

Register by September 11th to get the early bird discount

Attend the special Thursday evening event - 5:30-7 pm

Share with ISTA

Want to share something in our Newsletter?
Please contact secretary@ilscience.org.

Check out ISTA at:

<https://ilscience.org/>

FaceBook - Illinois Science Teaching Association
Twitter - @ILSciTeaching